Petals on the River surprised me. Negatively. I cannot remember the last time I read such a bad book. And the astonishment was even greater knowing this was written by Kathleen E. Woodiwiss. The characters are very plain, with little backbone. As soon as one offers a marriage, the other confesses her true and eternal love.

Petals On The River (1998) About book: It's been a while I haven't had so much trouble getting into a book as I did with Petals on the River. The fact that this romance exceeds 500 pages wasn't very encouraging, either.
